received from the five Debts Recovery Tribunals established so far, 1286 cases have been referred to these Tribunals.

Compromise proposals are received by the banks from time to time from the debtors and decisions on this are taken as per the guidelines of the Reserve Bank of India and in accordance with the policy evolved by the Board of directors of each bank. It has, however, not come to the notice of the Government nor any feed back has been received from the RBI and banks so far that a large number of debtors have come forward to settle their dues with the banks on mutually agreed terms as a result of the setting up of Recovery Tribunals.
